#1

Consistently Successful Residency Placement Rates

SGU is the number one provider of doctors into first-year US residencies for the last five years combined.*

Competitive Residency Specializations

More than 820 graduates obtained residencies in the US in 2015, many in highly competitive residency programs, with graduates specializing in everything from neurology and diagnostic radiology to surgery and pathology.

Scholarship Opportunities

We don't just encourage excellence—we reward it. Last year, St. George's University awarded more than $4 million to incoming students through an array of academic scholarships.

SGU is authorized by the US Department of Education to administer student loans for qualified US students—one of few international schools permitted to do so.
